SPONSORSHIP AND SUPPORT

Egerton Music Festival would not be possible without the generous support of our sponsors and of the Friends of the 2022 Music Festival, all of whom provide not only much-needed financial support to ensure the quality of the programme and the affordable prices, but also encouragement and enthusiasm for our aims.

Vital too are the hours of voluntary effort provided by the many people who help organise the Festival and assist at each event.

Thanks are also due to the Millennium Hall Committee, the Church warden of St James' Church, the owners of Egerton House, The George and The Rose & Crown inns for providing venues for Festival events.
